Ms. POLIPOGU SANDHYA

Mr. V SANDHYA

The Chairman welcomed all members including the new representatives for the committee. He expressed his happiness and satisfaction that no ragging cases have been reported so far.

The Chairman thanked the members for their continuous support in filling affidavits and orienting first-year students on the dress code as discussed in the previous meeting.

The Chairman recommended organizing counselling sessions to raise awareness among students about the consequences of indulging in ragging activities. Additionally, members were advised to continue their surprise visits to hostels to monitor student activities and update display posters as per the SV University Circular.

Students' representatives were advised to support members in creating the awareness about the evils of ragging among the students.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Secretary.
