

Report on Soft Skills – Problem Solving*By Mr. K. Sobhan Babu

Topic	Date	Resource Person Details	Venue	No. of students attended
Soft Skills – Problem Solving	27-08-2018	Mr. K. SOBHAN BABU, M.A, M.Ed., M.Phil. (Literature) Senior Lecturer in English from Swetha Institute of Technology and Science, Tirupati.	Room No: 405	82

A practical session on soft skills was organized with the objective to encourage the all-round development of students by focusing on soft skills, to make the students aware of the importance, the role and the content of soft skills through instruction, knowledge acquisition, demonstration and practice.

The resource person Mr. K. Sobhan Babu well experienced faculty in English, divided the content in to different modules. At first, He explained the students what the soft skills are, why it is importance for the students to acquire and what kind of skills the employer expects from the candidates.

Fig. Mr. K. Sobhan Babu presenting his lecture on Soft skills - Problem Solving

Objective of the session:

- Problem solving
- Creative and Problem-solving skills
- Self-motivation
- Leadership skills

About the session:

Soft Skills, character traits and interpersonal skills that characterize relationships with other people and complement hard skills in the work place. This will be useful on why acquiring soft skills are important for students. In view of this the modern workplace, soft skills are needed more than technical skills. Now- a-days employer expects the candidates who can perform their jobs well but who can also fit into the company culture and interact with the other employees. In order to do these things successfully, students need to develop the soft skills.

Outcome of the session:

All these positive abilities will become the pillars of support to settle down in a highly satisfying employment that every student dream of. Once they have mastered these soft skills, they can put them in their resume so as to attract the attention of the recruiters. I also helps them to find solutions to challenges or problems that come up in their everyday lives.

The program ended with the curious participation of the students.

Report on Soft Skills – Decision Making
By K. Prajwal kumar

Seminar Topic	Date	Resource Person	Venue	No. of Targeted Students
Soft Skills- Decision Making	06/09/2019	K. Prajwal kumar, Assistant Professor, Department of Humanities, Sri Krishna chaithanya Degree College, Nellore	Room No: 405	142

Objective of the session:

A practical session on soft skills was organized with the objective to encourage all round development of students by focusing on soft skills, to make the students aware of the importance, the role and the content of soft skills through instructions, knowledge acquisition demonstration and practice.

About the session:

The resource person Mr.K.Prajwal Kumar is well experienced faculty in English, divided the content into different modules. At first, he explained the students what the soft skills are, why it is important for the students to acquire, what soft skills the employees expect from the candidates and so on.

Fig : Students Interaction with Resource Person

The experts of his presentation are; Soft skills are character traits and interpersonal skills that characterize relationships with other people and complement hard skills in the work place. He laid emphasis on why acquiring soft skills are important for students. In view of this he said in the modern workplace, soft skills are needed more than technical skills their career. Now-a-days employers expect the candidates who can perform their jobs well but who can also fit into the company culture and interact with the other employees. In order to do these things successfully, students need to develop the following soft skills.

- Decision Making
- Self-motivation

Outcome of the Session:

All these positive abilities will become the pillars of support to settle down in a highly satisfying employment that every student dream of. Once they have mastered these soft skills, they can put them in their resume so as to attract the attention of the recruiters. The program ended with the curious participation of the students.

Report on Soft Skills – Team Work

By V. Arun

Seminar Topic	Date	Resource Person	Venue	No.of Targeted Students
Soft Skills- Team Work	05/12/2020	V. Arun,Assistant Proffessor, Department of Humanities, Vivekananda Degree College, Madanapalli	Room No: 202	86

Objective of the session:

A practical session on soft skills was organized with the objective to encourage the all-round development of students by focusing on soft skills, to make the students aware of the importance, the role and the content of soft skills through instruction, knowledge acquisition, demonstration and practice.

About the session:

The resource person Mr. V. Arun well experienced faculty in English, divided the content in to different modules. At first, He explained the students what the soft skills are, why it is importance for the students to acquire and what kind of skills the employer expects from the candidates.

Fig : Soft skills Activity

The experts of his presentation are; Soft skills are character traits and interpersonal skills that characterize relationships with other people and complement hard skills in the work place. He laid emphasis on why acquiring soft skills are important for students. In view of this he said in the modern workplace, soft skills are needed more than technical skills their career.

Now-a-days employers expect the candidates who can perform their jobs well but who can also fit into the company culture and interact with the other employees. In order to do these things successfully, students need to develop the following soft skills.

- Team working skills
- Making decision
- Self-motivation
- Positive attitudes

Outcome of the session:

All these positive abilities will become the pillars of support to settle down in a highly satisfying employment that every student dreams of once they have mastered these soft skills, they can put them in their resume so as to attract the attention of the recruiters. The program ended with the curious participation of the students.

Report on Soft Skills - Inter Personal Skills
By Ms. Jeevitha

Seminar Topic	Date	Resource Person	Venue	No. of Targeted Students
Soft Skills - Inter Personal Skills	19/11/2021	Jeevitha, Assistant Professor, Department of Humanities, Vignanasudha Degree College, Chittoor.	Room No: 305	92

Objective of the session:

A practical session on soft skills was organized with the objective to encourage all round development of students by focusing on soft skills, to make the students aware of the importance, the role and the content of soft skills through instructions, knowledge acquisition demonstration and practice.

About the session:

The resource person Mrs. Jeevitha is well experienced faculty in English, divided the content into different modules. At first, he explained the students what the soft skills are, why it is important for the students to acquire, what soft skills the employees expect from the candidates and so on.

Fig : Resources Person and Students Interaction

The experts of his presentation are: Soft skills are character traits and interpersonal skills that characterize relationships with other people and complement hard skills in the work place. He laid emphasis on why acquiring soft skills are important for students. In view of this she said in the modern workplace, soft skills are needed more than technical skills their career. Now-a-days employers expect the candidates who can perform their jobs well but who can also fit into the company culture and interact with the other employees. In order to do these things successfully, students need to develop the following soft skills.

- Inter Personal skills
- Team Work
- Leader ship skills
- Positive attitudes

Outcome of the session:

All these positive abilities will become the pillars of support to settle down in a highly satisfying employment that every student dream of once they have mastered these soft skills, they can put them in their resume so as to attract the attention of the recruiters. The program ended with the curious participation of the students.

Report on Soft Skills – Communication Skills

By Ms. Swarna

Seminar Topic	Date	Resource Person	Venue	No. of Targeted Students
Soft Skills-Communication Skills	14/10/2022	Swarna, Assistant Professor., Department of Humanities, Sri Padmavathi College of Computer Sciences & Technology, Thiruchanoor	Room No: 202	58

Objective of the Session:

A practical session on soft skills was organized with the objective to encourage all round development of students by focusing on soft skills, to make the students aware of the importance, the role and the content of soft skills through instructions, knowledge acquisition demonstration and practice.

About the Session:

The resource person Mrs. Swarna is well experienced faculty in English, divided the content into different modules. At first, he explained the students what the soft skills are, why it is important for the students to acquire, what soft skills the employees expect from the candidates and so on.

Fig : Resources Person and Students Interaction

The experts of his presentation are: Soft skills are character traits and interpersonal skills that characterize relationships with other people and complement hard skills in the work place. He laid emphasis on why acquiring soft skills are important for students. In view of this she said in the modern workplace, soft skills are needed more than technical skills their career. Now-a-days employers expect the candidates who can perform their jobs well but who can also fit into the company culture and interact with the other employees. In order to do these things successfully, students need to develop the following soft skills.

- Communication skills
- Self-Motivation
- Leadership skills

Outcome of the Session:

All these positive abilities will become the pillars of support to settle down in a highly satisfying employment that every student dreams of once they have mastered these soft skills, they can put them in their resume so as to attract the attention of the recruiters. The program ended with the curious participation of the students.