ANNUAL ALUMNI REPORT: 2020-21

The Annual Alumni Meet of SEICOM Degree College was held virtually on October 10, 2020, in response to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. This year's theme, "Resilience and Innovation," highlighted how alumni have adapted to unprecedented challenges while continuing to thrive in their respective fields. The virtual format not only ensured safety but also allowed for broader participation, enabling alumni from various locations around the globe to join the event.

The event commenced with a warm welcome address from the Principal, Dr. T. Surendranatha Reddy. In his opening remarks, Dr. Reddy expressed heartfelt gratitude to the alumni for their unwavering support and engagement with the college, even during these challenging times. He emphasized the importance of maintaining connections and fostering a sense of community, particularly in the face of adversity. Dr. Reddy also highlighted the vital role that alumni play in mentoring current students, encouraging them to share their experiences and insights.

A significant highlight of the meet was the keynote address delivered by Ms. K. Sree Lekha, a distinguished alumna known for her impactful work in her field. Speaking from her wealth of experience, Ms. Lekha discussed the profound impact of COVID-19 on various sectors, including healthcare, education, and business. She shared valuable insights on how alumni can contribute to community health initiatives, emphasizing the importance of collective action and innovation in overcoming challenges. Her address was both informative and inspiring, motivating attendees to engage in meaningful work that benefits their communities.

Following the keynote address, a panel discussion titled "Adapting to Change: Alumni Experiences during the Pandemic" featured several alumni who shared their personal stories of resilience and innovation. The panelists discussed how they navigated the challenges of remote work, mental health, and maintaining professional relationships during uncertain times. Their candid reflections fostered an open dialogue, allowing participants to share their own experiences and learn from one another. The discussion provided valuable takeaways, including strategies for adapting to change and the importance of mental well-being in professional settings.

The virtual format of the meet included breakout rooms for networking, allowing alumni to reconnect with former classmates and faculty members in smaller, more intimate settings. These breakout sessions provided a platform for attendees to exchange ideas, share updates about their careers, and explore potential collaborations. The sense of community and support among the alumni network was palpable, as participants engaged in meaningful conversations and strengthened their connections.

The Annual Alumni Meet 2020 served as a valuable platform for sharing experiences, networking, and inspiring one another during challenging times. The event not only highlighted the resilience of the SEICOM alumni community but also reinforced the college's commitment to fostering strong relationships with its graduates. The college looks forward to continuing this tradition and enhancing alumni engagement in future events, recognizing the importance of staying connected and supporting one another.

As the event concluded, Mr. V. Bhanu Prasad, an alumni member, delivered the vote of thanks. He expressed his appreciation for the efforts of the event organizers and the alumni members who contributed to the success of the meet. Mr. Prasad also extended his gratitude to the SEICOM Degree College administration for their assistance and guidance, which were instrumental in making the Alumni Meet 2020 a resounding success.

The Annual Alumni Meet 2020 at SEICOM Degree College was a testament to the strength and adaptability of the alumni community. By embracing the challenges posed by the pandemic and utilizing innovative solutions to connect, the college and its alumni demonstrated a shared commitment to resilience and growth. As participants left the virtual event, they carried with them not only insights and inspiration but also a renewed sense of belonging to a community that thrives together, no matter the circumstances.
